The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot is doing splendidly. It has accumulated two libel suits within a few weeks.

If Fitz. and Jeff. were introduced to the fellow who started that "fake" story they would doubtless treat him to a punch or two.

A Western editor says you "should never spank a child on a full stomach." No, never. Always turn 'em over and spank 'em on the other side.

The new constitution of Virginia makes the minimum school age in the public schools seven years. That is right. The public schools should not be considered nurseries.

The Sultan of Turkey eats very sparingly and eschews wines and liquors of all kinds, but he makes it up in coffee. He hankers for that, but the doctors have limited him to five or six cups a day.

Give me $1,000,000, says Santos Dumont, and I will fly across the ocean in two days. There are lots of men who would fly across the ocean in less than two days, if they could, for a tenth of that.

Mr. Simpson, of Cincinnati, Vice President of the American Rolling Mills Company, is stuck on Plymouth Rock chickens. He has a farm in Indiana and has contracted for 2,000,000 eggs for his incubators.

Mr. Mitchell, President of the United Mine Workers, says if the strikers can hold out ten weeks longer they will win. By that time the coal-burners will be paying about $12 a ton for coal, and how long can they hold out at that?

The bituminous coal miners have contributed over $50,000 to the anthracite strikers' fund. It seems to us that the bituminious mine operators might also chip in to that fund, for the longer the strike lasts the better it will be for them.

Statesman Hepburn, of Iowa, says what is wanted is a law to hit the bad trust and miss the good one. Wouldn't it be interesting to see the Republican statesmen on the hunt for a "bad trust." They couldn't find one with a forty-foot telescope.

GEORGE W. PHILLIPS RETURNED TO PETERSBURG

Chief of Police Ragland Arrived for Him Sunday—Matter May Be Amicably Adjusted Later.

Chief of Police R. F. Ragland, of Petersburg, Va., arrived in the city Sunday evening and took back with him last night to the Virginia city Geo. W. Phillips, arrested here Friday midnight by Detective Green on a telegram charging him with the misappropriation of $50 in cash, a watch and several articles of jewelry belonging to a widow lady with whom he boarded. The money and jewelry was recovered.

An effort was made to settle the matter here by friends of young Phillips, but Chief Ragland explained that a settlement could only be arranged with the woman at Petersburg, therefore he would have to take the young man back with him. Chief Ragland intimated that it was very likely the matter would be settled out of court when Phillips saw the woman.

Chief Ragland was glad of an opportunity to visit Wilmington, as he once attended school here and remembers many prominent Wilmington men as his friends of boyhood days. He was a pupil of the late General R. E. Colston and called upon many of his acquaintances while in the city.

AN INSURANCE WAR.

Southeastern Tariff Association is Making it Hot for the Greensboro Companies.

THE TACTICS EMPLOYED.

Home Concerns Defiant and the Screws Are Put Down on the Insured—Threatened Withdrawal of Protection on Heavy Risks.

There is widespread interest over the State in the relentless warfare being waged just now by the Southeastern Tariff Association against the Greensboro fire insurance companies, which several months ago refused to make the 25 per cent. advance in rate on certain risks, that were scheduled at the time.

Nearly all the insurance agencies in this city represent the Greensboro companies, and a short time ago a committee from the Association visited Wilmington with the result that a written agreement to write no more insurance at the Greensboro rates was exacted of their representatives here, who also handled business for companies in the Association. A similar agrement was secured from agents in other North Carolina cities and last week the Association committee "bearded the lion in his den," so to speak, and tackled Greensboro, with what result is best told in the following special to the News and Observer:

GREENSBORO, N. C., July 26.—During the last two days there has been an important conference held here between representatives of the Southeastern Tariff Association and the officers of the Greensboro Fire Insurance Companies. Tremendous pressure has been brought to bear upon the Greensboro companies to induce them to allow their Greensboro agents to charge the 25 per cent. in advance in rates. After most careful consideration the Greensboro companies have decided to maintain steadfastly their position and not charge the 25 per cent. advance. As a result of this decision a war upon the business of the Greensboro companies has been inaugurated in Greensboro. It goes without saying that the people of Greensboro will stand by their own companies.

One sensational feature of the fight is that the largest insurers in Greensboro have been notified this morning by representatives of outside companies that unless the Greensboro companies charge the 25 per cent. advance, all their insurance will be cancelled within five days, and that these large insurers will be left without protection. The manifest purpose of this is to induce the property holders themselves to insist that the Greensboro companies shall charge the advance, but it is not believed that the people of Greensboro will submit to any such humiliation.

It is believed in Greensboro that the people will stand by the home companies and there is said to be talk of asking the city authorities to establish a day and night fire patrol for business blocks in the event of the association companies carrying out their threats to leave the concerns with only the limited protection that can be given by the home companies.

THE GREENSBORO ELOPERS.

Arrived in New York and Say They Are Going to Europe.

A special from New York says:

When the Old Dominion steamer Jefferson from Norfolk came to her pier at the foot of Beach street this afternoon, a young man dressed in the height of fashion rushed down the gang plank, and was immediately seized by a crowd of attorneys and acquaintances. Following him closely was a woman, probably 40 years old, hysterical from excitement.

The young man was J. Ernest Harding, 25 years old, of Greensboro, N. C., and the woman was Mrs. J. W. Stafford, wife of a Greensboro man.

Among those who met Harding was Attorney Campbell, of the firm of Campbell & King, who had been retained by the family to endeavor to have the young man return to his home. But he heard the entreaties of Mrs. Stafford and he said to Mr. Campbell:

"No, I will remain with her. I love her and will go through hell to show her my devotion."

The couple were arrested at Norfolk yesterday and were released. Harding told a reporter that he and Mrs. Stafford would sail for England by the first steamer and would there be married.

Hoyt Gets His Freedom.

J. W. Hoyt, the alleged swindler, who was taken from Wilmington to Kinston a few days ago and held for the higher court in the sum of $100, sued out a writ of habeas corpus through his counsel and the Judge of the Superior Court promptly granted the same. In a letter to a representative of the STAR Mr. Hoyt says he was released "upon a concise and clear opinion which stated there was 'no case.'" Mr. Hoyt wrote on his way to Richmond, Va., and said in a few hours he would be "where policemen are not allowed to run over the State arresting whom they please and where justices usually know something of law."

Compliment to Wrightsville.

Wrightsville Beach correspondence, Atlanta Journal: "Inside of ten years," said a Northerner, at the beach a few days ago, who had just come from Morehead, and was a frequent visitor to New Jersey's great watering places, "this resort will be to the South what Atlantic City is to the North. For two reasons, it has the safest beach on the southeast coast, and Atlanta people have taken hold of it." What a delightful compliment this last, to a Southern city. The speaker was here in the thick of the crowd. Now we are having a little more elbow room. There seems to be no abatement in the number of fishing or sailing parties; and dancing and bowling and whist go on as before.

"BLACK MARIA" GOES OUT OF COMMISSION.

Differences Between Municipal Boards Strips City of Police Patrol Wagon Service—A White Elephant.

The "Black Maria," otherwise known as the patrol wagon, which transports "drunks and downs" to the station house, is no longer in comission and will not be for some time unless the Board of Audit and Finance relents. Now the alert policeman will have either to dump the "downs" in a vacant lot and leave Dame Nature to sober up the victims or else toil with the offender in hand along the sidewalk to the City Hall.

The "Black Maria" has been a prolific source of trouble between the two co-ordinate boards of the city for some time. In the first place the Board of Audit and Finance refused payment for the vehicle on the grounds of irregularities in the purchase and a suit with eminent counsel on three sides is now in the courts to enforce payment. In the next place the Board of Audit and Finance served notice on the Aldermen that no more bills for repairs to the "Maria" would be allowed. As a retaliatory measure the Aldermen then adopted an ordinance that the fees arising from the use of the vehicle be kept distinct and applied to a fund for the maintenance of the same. The ordinance having a financial feature, of course had to go before the "board of last resort" and it was promptly turned down.

The "Maria" broke down a few days ago and as there is no money for repairs, she remains in the City Hall yard, as much a white elephant on the city's hands as the big road roller "Hercules," which she now has for a side partner.

A trash cart was pressed into the service Saturday night for a while but the "Maria" with its clanging bell and a stream of small boys running behind is a "long felt want" unsupplied.

WILL BE HERE IN SEPTEMBER.

New Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Highly Esteemed in Charleston, His Home.

Mr. Charles Dushan, physical director of the Charleston Y. M. C. A., has returned home after a visit to Wilmington where he will locate as secretary of the local Association in September. Referring to his intended departure from that city the Charleston Post says:

The Wilmington call is a good one and Mr. Dushan's many friends are glad that he received it. They all regret his departure from the local association. He proved one of the best physical directors that the association has had and the manner in which he has for several months discharged the duties of secretary has been especially to his credit. His personal qualities strongly commend him, aside from his professional standing, and his departure from Charleston is a distinct loss to Charleston and Wilmington association has reason to be well pleased with the selection that it has made.

Mr. Dushan had offers as physcal director from the associations at Dallas, Texas and Covington, Ky., and he was in correspondence with the associations at Richmond, Va., and Battle Creek, Mich. He preferred the offer of the Wilmington association, and his Charleston friends are glad of it, as this selection will keep him nearer to them and allow for an occasional visit.

Will Celebrate Labor Day.

Local Union No. 899, Carpenters and Joiners of America, are arranging for a befitting celebration of Labor Day. At the next regular meeting a committee of arrangements will be named to make all preparations. Union No. 1,210 of the order has lately been established at Southport, N. C., through the auspices of the Wilmington Union and a large crowd will go down from here to the installation on Aug. 8th. General Organizer E. S. Odell is expected to arrive on the 7th and accompany the party. Local Union 899 will meet in the future in the MacRae building on Front street until its new hall in the Murchison National Bank building is ready for occupancy.

Repairing the Streets.

A force of hands was put to work yesterday by Superintendent Woolard in repairing the macadam streets in the various sections of the city—an improvement that was needed badly from the fact that the negotiations for a lease of the rock quarry were somewhat extended. The Merchants' Association has been called to meet this afternoon to urge the repair. A part of the street force is also at work placing the stone curbing for the improvement of Red Cross street, which will be commenced as soon as the Castle street extension is finished.

Larceny Cases in Police Court.

Dave Mitchell, colored, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Policeman C. E. Wood at Water and Princess streets, on a charge of the larceny of some clothing from another negro with whom he boarded on St. James' avenue, leading from Orange street. The case of Bill Moore, charged with stealing flour from the Atlantic Coast Line Co., was continued at the request of defendant's counsel, Herbert McClammy, Esq.

Y. M. C. A. Social Session.

Another social evening will be enjoyed by Y. M. C. A. members to-night from 8 to 10 o'clock. Ping pong, crokinole, chess, checkers and many other games will be played and other forms of entertainment provided. All members will be welcome.

L. & N. NOT FOR SALE

Denial in New York of Rumors as to the Absorption by the Atlantic Coast Line.

AT MORGAN HEADQUARTERS.

No Suggestion As to Important Traffic Arrangements That Are Believed to Be Possible—News in Richmond and Baltimore.

Interest in the rumors persistent in Baltimore that the Atlantic Coast Line is about to absorb the Louisville and Nashville railroad is hardly less intense than in the wild speculation indulged in a few weeks prior to the authoritative announcement of the taking-over of the Plant System by the A. C. L.

From Coast Line sources thus far there has been no denial or confirmation of the rumors but from the Morgan interests in New York, there came last night an authoritative announcement that the Louisville and Nashville was not for sale. The advices, however, do not deny or suggest the possibility of important traffic arrangements which might be almost equivalent, so far as a control of the situation is concerned, to an actual merger. Most friendly relations exist between the Coast Line and the Morgan interests, which manage the Southern railway, and both systems have been working in complete harmony. The establishment of the important traffic arrangements referred to is therefore believed to be not out of the question.

When the Coast Line absorbed the Plant system it gave the Southern valuable trackage privileges. The purchase and division of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad by the Coast Line and Southern and Messrs. Morgan & Co.'s acquisition of the Charleston and Western Carolina railroad and its subsequent delivery to the Coast Line are good evidence of this cordial feeling.

In Richmond and Baltimore.

RICHMOND, VA., July 27.—The report that the Atlantic Coast Line is negotiating for the absorption of the Louisville and Nashville railroad has aroused the deepest interest in certain quarters here by reason of the fact that many have purchased largely of the common stock, having apparently received information that the deal was going up. Some months ago the common stock was below par, and those who purchased then will reap a rich harvest, for the stock has steadily gone upward and apparently the highest point has not yet been reached. Atlantic Coast Line common quotations closed to-day at 175.

BALTIMORE, MD., July 27.—It is impossible to obtain an authoritative expression of opinion concerning the rumor that negotiations are pending looking to the absorption by the Atlantic Coast Line of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, which is controlled by J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. The report that the Coast Line Company will get the Louisville and Nashville has been freely discussed in financial circles here, and the general impression prevails that it is well founded.

DEATH OF A GOOD WOMAN.

Mrs. John W. Creasy Passed Away Early Yesterday Morning.

Many friends will regret exceedingly to hear of the death of Mrs. Clara Creasy, wife of Mr. John W. Creasy, a popular young business man of Wilmington and a son of the lamented Dr. W. S. Creasy, which occurred yesterday morning at 7:45 o'clock at the family residence in this city, No. 306 North Seventh street.

Mrs. Creasy had been in very poor health for a year or more and her death was not wholly unexpected, though hope was entertained for her recovery a short time ago. She was a woman much admired in her circle of acquaintances and lived a life of tender devotion to her family. She was a consecrated member of Grace M. E. church.

Before marriage she was Miss Clara Gaston, of Charlotte. She married eight years ago and as a result of the union there survive three interesting little children, the youngest being a mere infant. She is also survived by a grief-stricken husband and her mother, who resides in Charlotte, to which city the remains will be sent on the 305 P. M. train to-day for interment.

Changes in Virginia Office.

Mr. Edgar Child, formerly assistant superintendent of the Virginia Life Insurance Co., in this city, has been promoted to the superintendency of a new agency of the company lately established at Salisbury, N. C., and has entered upon his duties in that city. Mr. Child has been succeeded in the Wilmington office by J. T. Bass formerly superintendent at Greensboro. Mr. Bass has already arrived in the city and he will be joined later by his family, which is now visiting in Richmond. Mr. N. E. Bradford is the capabable superintendent of the Virginia office, having lately been transferred here from Raleigh.

Return of the Georgia Troops.

Atlanta Constitution: "Sun-burned from surf bathing, but healthy looking and happy, the Fifth Georgia regiment returned to Atlanta yesterday morning. The regiment arrived in the city at 9 o'clock in the morning over the Seaboard Air Line, and the men and officers, all of whom were tired out, went immediately to their homes. All of the officers and men speak in glowing terms of the encampment as one of the most successful in the history of the regiment, and each is loud in his praise of the hospitality of the people of Wilmington and North Carolina. Wrightsville Beach proved to be an ideal place for a camp, and afforded many opportunities for healthful exercise and recreation not to be found at an inland camp."

BY WILLIAM H. BERNARD

WILMINGTON, N. C.

TUESDAY MORNING. JULY 29.

ISSUES ENOUGH.

There is a good deal of talk these days about "harmonizing" and "reorganizing" the Democratic party. Harmonizing is easy enough provided there be a spirit of conciliation and toleration and every one is willing to concede something for the sake of harmony, but there can be no harmony when one insists that another must yield to him and accept his dictum before there can be harmony. There can be no harmony when one insists that the other who differs from him must confess that he erred, declare his repentance and humbly ask to be forgiven before the door will be opened and he is permitted to enter. There can be no harmony when he who agrees with you on every question but one must recant his belief in that before you take him into fellowship and let him join hands with you in fighting for all those other questions, the vital importance of which both realize and proclaim. There is no sense in that kind of plan of harmonizing. It is both senseless and intolerant. It is egotistic and arrogant, besides.

There are isms enough on which all Democrats are agreed without taking any one issue upon which they differ, making that a test of Democracy, of party loyalty, and making it also the obstacle to prevent Democrats, who are willing to join hands to fight the common enemy from gathering together. In a letter recently written to the Democrats of Mississippi, by David B. Hill, and read at their State convention, he made a plea for harmony and gave some of the questions on which Democrats are united as follows:

"Our duty at the present time is promoting the avoidance of recriminations among leading men, and the exercise of a spirit of conciliation among all factions in every section of the country. There is no need of any reorganization of the party. The party of Jefferson, Jackson and Tilden is good enough for us. We need to avoid divisions about abstract questions and we should only press to the front those timely issues upon which there is substantial accord among all Democrats.

"The preservation of constitutional liberty, wherever our flag permanently floats; opposition to dangerous corporations and other monopolies, which prevent legitimate competition and operate to the detriment of the people; popular insistence upon State rights upon the guarantee of the constitution; public taxation for public purpose only; the abolition of the tariff upon articles controlled by the trusts, the election of United States Senators by the people of several States, genuine reciprocity with Cuba, as against Republican '20 per cent,' specious reciprocity, and the maintenance of the personal liberty of the citizens. These are issues, among others upon which there is no division of sentiment among Democrats and upon which all can unite, North, South, East and West."

Isn't there enough in these to rally Democrats? Why should the Democrat who is anxious to redress the grievances from which the people suffer, to lighten the burdens of taxation, to put an end to discriminating class rule, to stop the plundering of the many for the benefit of the few, to stop sectional legislation for partisan purposes, to check the onward course to imperialism and bring our Government back within traditional and constitutional limits, why, we asks, should the Democrat who desires these and other things for the public good subordinate them all and give precedence to one question, which has ceased for the time being to be an enthusing or a rallying one? This is conceded by thousands of Democrats who fought zealously and bravely for the silver issue in the campaign of '96, and stood for it again four years later when, although an issue, it was overshadowed by "imperialism," a more pressing issue. It is also practically conceded by Wm. J. Bryan, who, while not surrendering it, subordinated it in the campaign of 1900 to "imperialism." He virtually concedes it now, for while he insists upon adhesion to the platform of '96, in speaking of present and prospective issues, when referring to money, he uses the expression "money question" and avoids special mention of silver or ratio. Why then when he virtually concedes so much make close adhesion to the platform of 1896 a test of Democracy? That is not and should not be the test of Democracy now any more than opposition to the enfranchisement of the emancipated slaves of the South should be, which was vigorously opposed by the Democratic party when that measure was under consideration.

A better test and the only one which should be applied now is contained in the following letter by Senator Bailey to the "harmony meeting" at Nantasket, Mass., at which many prominent Democrats, including Mr. Bryan, were present. Senator Bailey could not attend and sent the following letter in response to an invitation:

"Without yielding any of my convictions upon disputed questions, I am ready to welcome every Democrat back into active party service, and I only demand of them that they will bow to the will of the majority and support the nominees of our next national convention. All Democrats agree with each other on the main and permanent principles of our Government, and they ought to be willing to submit their differences over issues, however important, to the assembled wisdom of our party, and abide by the decision when fairly reached. Upon no other basis can any organization be maintained, and there is no organization to which this test can be so easily applied as the Democratic party.

"A Democrat's party affiliation ought to be determined upon what we have been pleased to call the fundamental principles of the Government, and surely it ought to be easy for men who agree upon those principles to subordinate their difference upon issues of a day or of a decade and act cordially and harmonously together."

Mr. Bailey yields none of his convictions, nor does he demand that a Democrat who differs from him on some questions yield his convictions before he will act with him or accept his proffered hand in party fellowship. That ought to be the spirit actuating every Democrat, who is struggling for the country's weal. With such a spirit inviting harmony and closing up the lines we may win; without it never.

A TIN PLATE OBJECT LESSON.

We were under the impression that tin plate was so well protected by the Dingley tariff that it didn't ask any odds of foreign manufacturers, so well protected in fact that Welsh tin makers feeling unable to compete with it were contemplating moving their plants to this country. We were also told when the tin schedules in the McKinley tariff were under discussion that the duty on tin would give such an impetus to the development of our tin mines that we would soon be able to produce more tin than our manufacturers would need. Both of these seem to be mistakes, for our tin plate manufacturers say they can't compete with the Welsh tin plate makers, and they are still importing the block tin they use from Wales, but on account of the rebate they get that practically free of duty. Some of the plants are now talking of a 25 per cent. reduction in wages as necessary to enable them to compete with foreign manufacturers. Discussing and defending this the Philadelphia Press, a protection organ, says:

The Amalgamated tin plate lodges have been for a fortnight considering a reduction of 25 per cent. in wages so as to permit competition with Welsh tin plate. The American Tin Plate Company, one of the subsidiary coporations of the Steel Trust, pays the Amalgmated scale. On this scale it cannot take a contract for 1,500,000 tin cases to be made for the Standard Oil Trust.

The trust is using Welsh tin. It is practically duty free, as there is a 99 per cent. rebate of the duty paid when the tin plate is exported in the shape of a tin case. If the tin plate workers reduce their wage. 25 per cent. American tin plate can be made cheap enough to compete with Welsh tin plate. If not the competition is impracticable. The difference in wages is greater than 25 per cent., nearer half, but the superior efficiency of American workmen makes up the difference after a 25 per cent. reduction has been made. This reduction is requisite and necessary if the American Tin Plate Company is to compete with free trade goods. It is not necessary in making American goods for the American trade. These can be supplied at current wages. They only keep the big plants busy. With a 25 per cent. reduction all the plants can be kept busy. There will be more work for the tin plate workers, but since it must be done under free trade competition it must be at a 25 per cent. reduction.

Yet there are people still asserting that the tariff and wages have nothing to do with each other.

In this case the only effect of the tariff seems to be to give the tinplate manufacturers control of the home markets by practically excluding foreign tinplate, but it does not enable them to compete with foreign manufacturers. In other words, the American consumer is taxed to enable the tinplate manufacturers to pay the wages they do pay. But haven't the defenders of the Steel Trust, which has been clearing over 11 per cent. profit on its capital of $1,400,000,000, been declaring that it was the protection that enables it to compete with foreign steel makers and achieve such remarkable success in buliding up their foreign trade? Isn't the trust the Press writes about "a part of the big Trust?"

KICKING AT THE DICKER.

It seems that the Republican machine managers in Buncombe county have found some Democratic disappointed aspirants for office in that county, and have been dickering with them, to form a combine to get possession of the offices. We do not know what may be the strength of the disappointed contingent or what kind of a bargain the Republican machine manipulators made with them, but they must have given them a pretty big hunk of the pie, for there is hard kicking by some of the loyal who wanted some of the pie themselves. They object to giving the new recruits the first and the best grab, and we don't blame them.

We don't see why they should be left out in the cold, hungry, while the new recruits are to be taken in and fed, and the hungry are expected to march up to the polls and vote so that Jeter Pritchard & Co., can get some men elected who will do their bidding and help send Jeter back to Washington to hold that seat in the Senate down for another term.

If the machine manipulators can find disappointed Democratic office hankerers enough in other counties to make a dicker worth the effort there will doubtless be a good deal of that kind of thing done and we will have another verification of the warning sent out by Senator Simmons some time ago. Senator Pritchard and his aids are great as dickerers. That's their specialty. But they have never made much of success in dickering with pouting Democrats.

The Samoans have a polite way of fighting when they are at war. They never attack the enemy without first sending him word, and they think it the meanest kind of business to shoot at an officer who carries only a sword and can't shoot back. These untutored fellows will learn differently when they become thoroughly civilized. Then they will learn, like other civilized warriors, to sneak around and jump on the enemy when he is asleep or off his guard and do him up.

Henry Howell, on Long Island, had a nice brindle cow until the other day, when a big automobile went whizzing by, took her by surprise and scared her to death. She tried to get away from it by jumping into the air, when she turned a complete somerset and dropped dead. Now Mr. Howell is patiently waiting with a double barrel shot gun for the return of that automobile.

— Fayetteville Observer: The textile Excelsior of this morning says: "The Textile Excelsior stated a few weeks ago that the Hope Mills Manufacturing Company would probably build a new mill at Hope Mills to cost in the neighborhood of $250,000. We are informed that work on the new mill will begin in the near future."

— Goldsboro Argus: John R. Melton, the ex-chief of police of Wilmington, who was expelled from the city on the revolution occasion there several years ago, and has since been operating a whiskey distillery in this county, had his still and 21 barrels of whiskey seized by U. S. revenue officers last week for irregularities and suspected defalcations.

— Kinston Free Press: Mr. Sam Taylor and Mr. A. J. Loftin lost a barn of tobacco each yesterday by fire. This is the time of year that farmers lose a great deal in this manner, and it is suggested by Mr. Loftin that it is caused by running the temperature up too high when the tobacco is nearly cured and consequently in a very dry and inflammable state. Tobacco cures should guard well against this.

— Greensboro dispatch (26th) in Raleigh News and Observer: Chief Scott returned from Norfolk this morning. He says that he found the elopers, Harding and Mrs. Stafford, absolutely beyond all power of reason or persuasion as to the perillous course they had begun. Mrs. Stafford said that Harding had proposed flight to her and she had taken a year to consider it and her decision was unalterable. When her children were referred to she said they were all boys and could well take care of themselves. She added that before she would leave her unlawful lover and come back she would willingly drown herself in the bottom of the sea. Harding was equally stubborn, and the chief, who went as much as a mediator as an officer, could make no impression on either by appeals to their sense of reason, honor or prudence.

— Greenville Reflector: At the time the farmers began curing the present tobacco crop there was every indication of a fine crop, but the weather of the last two or three weeks has materially changed the prospects. Some of the farmers tell us they believe the crops this year will be the poorest that has been raised in the country. The drought has also greatly injured other crops also. —— Tuesday night two colored men who worked at the camp of the Beaufort County Lumber Company, at Shelmerdine, had some trouble that resulted in a homicide. Nathan Sessoms shot Osborn Walker several times, and the latter died next day from his wounds. Sessoms was from Ahoskie. He fled from the camp after the shooting and has not been captured. Walker was from near Enfield and his body was taken there on the train.

— Winston Journal: The F. C. Manning Wagon Works is an enterprise in Salem of peculiar interest, from the fact that it is among the oldest enterprise in this line in the section. These works have been in continuous operation since 1837, and have enjoyed an ever increasing business. —— A sad death occurred Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, about two miles north of Walkertown. That section was visited by a heavy storm, during which the electrical display was frightful. It was during this storm that little Walter Blair was struck and instantly killed by a bolt of lightning. The bolt struck him on the head, badly scarring it and burning the body. The boy was out in the field staking a cow when the accident occurred. He was accompanied by another younger brother, who was badly stunned, but was not seriously injured.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK, July 28.—Cotton opened easy with July two points higher and other months two to six points lower, following which the tendency was quite steadily downward with the close at about the lowest figures of the day. The feature of the day's business, which reached about 250,000 bales, was the selling by Wall street bear interests. The English market news was a disappointment. Futures there were weak and irregular, while spot cotton was neglected and unchanged. The crop reports were quite as good as any received thus far this season. The government weather bulletins gave showers generally in the belt, notably in the districts east of the Mississippi river, where moisture is needed for the best interests of the plant. Liverpool, the South and Philadelphia interest were liberal sellers throughout the session. After the first break the scalp element turned for cover but, upon the market without recuperative power again finding sold and for the balance of the day worked side by side with the bears. The market was finally barely steady with prices net twelve to sixteen points lower, the distant months showing the greatest loss.

CHICAGO, July 28.—Oats had another sensational drop to-day, July standard selling of 12c at one time. There was nothing particularly eventful in the trading but the weakness naturally had an influence on the other pits which had a bearish incentive of its own. The result was an easier tone, yet with shorts still wary. July wheat closed 1c. down; September wheat ½c. lower; July corn 2c. down; September corn 1½c. down; July oats 9c. lower and September oats ½c. lower. Provisions closed 5 to 27½c. lower.

The blue birds are with us again. The streams and ponds are warming up. The fishermen should be looking up their outfits. Seeing if anything is wanted before the last minute.

As of old we are showing the finest things to tempt the fish kingdom and make the sport more sporty for the anglers.

Lines may be wanted; poles must be needed; hooks are very necessary, and in fact we have everything that is required to make a complete outfit.

To those that are interested in the sport, to those others that may not be so enthusiastic, we would consider it a favor to have all come in and look.

FLORENCE, S. C., Nov. 26, 1900.—I was first advised by our family physician in Charleston to use TEETHINA with our baby when he was but a very young infant, as a preventive of colic and to warm and sweeten the stomach. Later it was useful in teething troubles, and its effect has been found to be so very beneficial and so free from dangers that are consequent upon the use of drugs and soothing syrups, that we have come to regard it, after use with three children, as one of the necessities when there is a new baby in the house and until the teething troubles are over, and we take pleasure in recommending it to our friends instead of the horrid stuff that so many people use to keep their baby quiet. CONDENSED STORIES.

Witty Sayings of a Celebrated Irish Judge.

In a trial for assault before Judge Morris, a celebrated Irish judge who died recently, an eloquent lawyer addressed the jury at great length to prove that his client had not battered the prosecutor. All during this speech Lord Morris was turning over the pages of a railway guide. At last the barrister sat down, declaring that he would not call any evidence. "Gentlemen of the jury," said the judge, "I have computed that the young gentleman who has made the interesting and beautiful speech that we have all enjoyed was 168 miles away from the scene of this brutal assault when it was committed. He is the only witness for the defense. On the other hand, there is the man who was struck, the man who saw him struck and the constable who saw him hiding under his bed. It is for you to say whether a broken head or an outburst of eloquence is the better testimony to a matter of fact." At another time, in a sanitary case, a lawyer once said, "I assume that your lordship is fully acquainted with the statutes and authorities." "Assume nothing of the sort," said the judge. "I yield to no man in my utter ignorance of sanitary law."

One of the most characteristic of Lord Morris' sayings has yet to be related. There was some discussion on theological matters at a club in Dublin and one of the disputants was ironical over what he called the credulity of educated Catholics. He admired it, he said, as something entirely beyond his own powers. Lord Morris broke in with his great brogue: "Ah, now, ye think yerself a fine intelligence because ye can only believe this and believe that. I'll tell ye now, I'll send out to the public house at the corner and for sixpence I'll get ye a fellow that doesn't believe the half of it."

A "Common Platform."

The happiness of nations may hang upon the correct translation of a statesman's speech, and accuracy of language has become of the highest importance. An English commissioner, Sir Charles Warren, recently witnessed the dangers which may result from the mistranslation of a speech. Sir Charles had been called upon to lay the foundation stone of a new Wesleyan church in Mafeking. He said what countless other gentlemen have said on similar occasions—how pleased he was to see so many people of different opinions meeting on a common platform. The official interpreter of the occasion struggled bravely to get the idea before his Kaffir auditors. Then he informed them that Sir Charles Warren complained of the "common platform," and declared that it ought to have had green or red baize for a covering.

Mansfield's Sarcasm.

Richard Mansfield is known to have very decided notions upon deportment and matters of etiquette, relates the New York Times. With a friend, who is authority for the story, Mr. Mansfield rode up town on a Broadway car the other afternoon. Both men had seats for a time until at the intersection of a shopping street the car became crowded with women. Both offered

"I THOUGHT YOU SAID 'THANK YOU.'"

their seats to the nearest women. The one who accepted Mr. Mansfield's courtesy slid into his seat without a word. The actor raised his silk hat.

"I beg your pardon," he said slowly.

The woman looked up apparently in surprise.

"I didn't say anything," she volunteered.

"Pardon me for my mistake," returned Mansfield in a kindly tone. "Pardon me, I thought you said 'Thank you!'"

The attempt to produce ideas by rubbing pen and paper together is much like trying to evoke fire from the friction of a couple of sticks. It is a thing not entirely impossible, but it is always a tedious and generally an ineffectual process.—"Talks on Writing English."

An Excited Fireman.

Some time ago in a suburban town there was a succession of fires. It was before a paid fire department was organized, and the work of subduing the various outbreaks fell to a volunteer force of fire fighters, who took great pride in their work. One night there was a midnight alarm and a great crowd gathered. Upon the arrival of the volunteer force it was discovered that only one lantern was available. The smoke was dense, but very little flame appeared, and the night was very dark.

Finally one cornice of the burning structure broke out in a sheet of flame. As the crowd cheered a man at the nozzle directed the stream toward the lurid light.

"For heaven's sake, man, keep the water off that blaze!" shouted an excited volunteer fighter. "Blame it, don't you see it's the only light we got to put out the fire by?"—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Artificial Light.

A recent writer makes the following common sense remarks on the use of artificial light for evening work: It should be made as steady as possible and be so placed that it will not come opposite the eyes, as in this situation it is dazzling and injurious. Ground glass globes should not be used, for, though valuable in an ordinary room where they tend to diffuse the light more equally, they give an indistinct light for work and put a considerable strain upon the eyes. For the same reason ground or ribbed glass should not be employed for the lower portions of windows.

His Prayers.

"But my prayers are not answered," complained a parishioner to the late Rev. Dr. Patten of New Haven, Conn.

"Possibly that's because your prayers are like some promissory notes—presented before they are due," suggested the doctor.

A Discriminating Apprehension.

"Surely you are not afraid of the dark?"

"No," said the small boy, "but I am a little scared of the things that might be in it that I can't see."—Washington Star.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 29

DR. GRISSOM A SUICIDE.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Dr. Eugene Grissom, once well-known as an alienist and neurologist, committed suicide here to-day at his son's home by sending a bullet through his brain. Dr. Grissom had been dejected and morose for several weeks and had become physically and mentally weakened from the use of strong narcotics. He was a native of Granville county, N. C., served on the Confederate side until wounded during the civil war and afterwards was a member of the Legislature. For 21 years he was superintendent of the North Carolina Insane Asylum, at Raleigh, and gained a wide reputation as an alienist and lecturer. Before the American Medical Society he delivered a lecture entitled "The Borderland of Insanity," that attracted great attention. He was the author of "True and False Experts," a work devoted to showing the alleged inaccuracies of the expert testimony in insanity cases. Dr. Grissom was at one time first vice president of the American Medical Society and several times presiding officer of the Association of American Asylums. He was the president of the convention of 1886. He was a Mason of high degree. He was 71 years old.

ON AN EXCURSION TRAIN.

Two Whites and Two Negroes Shot and Killed in an Affray.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

JOPLIN, MO., July 28.—Four men, two whites and two negroes, are reported to have been shot and killed on a Missouri, Kansas and Texas excursion train at a point in the Indian Territory last night. The negroes are said to have been shot down by the whites, who were in turn shot and killed by a deputy sheriff who was accompanying the excursion. No names and no particulars have been received. The excursion was run into Joplin from Muskogee yesterday and several fights occurred in this city among the passengers before the train departed for the south.

TROOPS ORDERED OUT.

To Protect a Negro from Lynching in Westmoreland County, Va.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RICHMOND, Va., July 28.—The Washington Guards, under command of Captain M. B. Rowe, left Fredericksburg this morning under orders from Governor Montague and Adjutant General Nalle, to report to Sheriff W. H. Tyler, of Westmoreland county, at Alexandria, to take under guard to Montross the county seat of Westmoreland, the negro prisoner John Lomax, charged with attempting to assault Miss Susie Costenbader, near Potomac mills, several weeks ago. Governor Montague ordered the troops there to prevent any attempt at lynching.

ANOTHER SUICIDE.

A. M Rothschild Shot Himself Through the Head at Washington, D. C.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—A. M. Rothschild, until two months ago the head of the State Street Department Store firm of A. M. Rothschild and Company, committed suicide to-day at his home here by shooting himself in the head, the wound inflicted causing almost instant death. Acute insomnia which probably caused temporary insanity, is said to be responsible for the deed.

AFFAIRS IN THE MINING REGIONS.

Believed There Will Be No Attempt to Break the Strike Before September 1st.

ASSESSMENTS ARE COMING IN

Habeas Corpus Proceedings for Release of Men Imprisoned Being Prepared More Warrants Issued for Arrests of Strikers.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WILKESBARRE, PA., July 28.—It is understood that the Rock Miners will present a petition to the executive board of the Mine Workers' Union, requesting permission to return to work. It is said the employment of this class of anthracite miners would not affect the situation.

The announcement of the officials of the Oxford colliery of their intention to resume operations August 2nd is being discussed here, but as yet there is no evidence on the part of the Wyoming operators to take similar action. The opinion prevails throughout the region that there will be no attempt to break the strike before September 1st.

Warrants for Strikers.

Warrants were issued to-day for the arrest of a number of striking miners at Nanticoke who are charged with holding up and assaulting several steam employes of the Susquehanna Coal Company who were on their way to work on Saturday morning. Thus far only one arrest has been made.

At strike headquarters, President Mitchell was busy receiving and answering telegrams from Indianapolis and United Mine Workers headquarters in West Virginia. He also discussed the plan of relief with several committees from the United Mine Workers that called.

A Foreman Shot.

POTTSVILLE, PA., July 28.—Daniel Landerman, foreman at the Kohiner colliery, Shenandoah, was shot to-day near his home by a crowd of strikers. His face and shoulders are torn with buckshot but it is thought he will recover. "Albert Landerman was also chased and shot and four other non-union men were badly beaten.

Assessments Coming In.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., July 28.—Secretary Wilson, of the Miners' Union, said to-day that the anthracite men are being well cared for, although the assessments of the bituminous miners is just beginning to come in. He does not expect the bulk of the first assessment until next week, because the majority of the miners are paid semimonthly. The clerical force at headquarters was increased to-day to handle the funds.

The miners are making an appeal to the members of the American Federation of Labor, which practically amounts to a direct appeal from the officers of the federation. The habeas corpus proceedings for the release of the men imprisoned for violating Judge Jackson's injunction are being prepared.

Another Injunction.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., July 28.—Judge Jackson issued another injunction this afternoon of the same general character as those for whose violation "Mother" Jones and others were tried. It was issued upon the application of G. Clinton Gardner, receiver for the Flemington Coal Company, and is directed against thirty strikers and organizers.

The Situation at Wilkesbarre.

WILKESBARRE, PA., July 28.—J. E. Mullahy, secretary of the Stationary Firemen's Association, of Pennsylvania, was arrested here this afternoon charged with libel. Twenty-five complaints had been lodged against him by men who are now employed in various capacities by the local companies in this section. It was alleged that Mullahy had printed a circular containing the names of the prosecutors. He classified them under the head of "unfair workmen," and then, so some claimed, posted them in conspicuous places throughout the region. Two women testified that they saw a man who looked like the defendant put up the circulars on telegraph poles near their homes.

Magistrate Pollock held Mullahy in the sum of $500 on each charge which made the bail price $12,500. The bail was promptly furnished by friends of the accused. Secretary Mullahy has been very active in the strike. It is said that through his influence he has held 95 per cent. of the striking firemen firm. Engineers and pumpmen have gone back to work in large numbers since the strike began, but the firemen have remained out with the miners almost to a man. At strike headquarters, Mullahy's arrest on so many warrants is termed an outrage.

Sheriff Jacobs was called to Durysa to-day to disperse a mob which had gathered in the vicinity of the Warnke washery and prevented some men from going to work. When the sheriff arrived on the scene the crowd left.

The work of distributing relief among the strikers of the mining region began to-day. The most needy cases will receive aid first.

PARIS, July 23.—Francois Coppee, the author, and M. Lerolle, a Nationalist deputy, who were arrested last week in connection with the anti-clerical rioting, addessed a great meeting which was held in a riding school in the Rue D'Enghien to-night to protest against the government's action in the matter of the closing of the unauthorized congregationist schools. M. Coppee, in a vigorous denunciation of the government made remarks hostile to President Loubet. After receiving a demonstration, a counter-demonstration to M. Coppee occurred in the Senate, but the police were able to maintain order.

MURDER IN LOUDOUN, VA.

Wm. Wilson Shot and Killed by Some Unknown Person.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RICHMOND, VA., July 28.—A Leesburg special says: William Wilson, an excellent citizen of lower Loudoun, living between Sterling and Dranesville, was murdered to-day while returning home from the railroad station at Herndon. Shooting was heard and Mr. Wilson was found shot in the groin, and so far gone as to be unable to give any information as to the affair. He died in a few minutes. He was a faithful Confederate soldier, belonging to Mosby's command, and leaves a wife and an adopted child.

A HOT TIME IN NEW JERSEY.

One Man Killed, Another Dangerously Stabbed and Several Others Injured at a Primary Election

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CAMDEN, N. J., July 28.—The primary election for delegates to the convention of the First Congressional District of New Jersey was held this afternoon and evening in Camden, Gloucester, and Salem counties, which comprise the district. The candidates for the nomination are Henry C. Loudenslager, the present congressman, and J. Alpyas Van-Sant. The contest has been one of the most bitter ever held in southern New Jersey. The polls were open from 5 P. M. to 8 P. M., and the three hours wer marked with serious fighting. One man was killed in this city, and Joe Goddard, the well-known pugilist of Philadelphia, was probably fatally shot, while electioneering in Pensauken township. Another man was dangerously stabbed in this city and a fourth man received stab wounds at "Dog Corner" near Merchantville.

Goddard was at a voting place in Pensauken township when he was shot. He was with a number of men who were travelling from one polling to another. The pugilist got into a quarrel with a colored constable named Robert Washington. It is alleged that Goddard assaulted the constable with a baseball bat and the colored man in self-defence shot Goddard in the head. The constable surrendered himself to the police and the wounded prize fighter was brought to Cooper hospital here, where the physicians say he may die.

At the same polling place Constable Isaac Fowler, while in a fight, was stabbed twice. His wounds, though painful, are not considered serious. There was considerable trouble in Pensauken township and at Merchantville and a number of persons were badly beaten.

The most serious affray occurred at Third and Breckett streets, in this city. Each side had a crowd at the polling place at that point and a general riot was started. When it was all over it was found that a man whose identity is not yet known had been shot through the heart by some unknown person and a policeman, not in uniform, named Harry Miller, had received 2 cuts on the head and a probably fatal stab wound in the left lung. There were a number of other persons hurt in the fight, but not seriously so.

At midnight both sides claimed the election, but the returns up to that time from the three counties indicated that VanSant had secured a majority of the delegates. The adherents of both Loudenslager and VanSant are charging each other with fraud and with bringing large numbers of repeaters from Philadelphia. The convention will be held at Woodbury on Wednesday.

FIGHTING IN HAYTI.

Firmin's Attack Repulsed by Gen. Colin's Forces--Gen Salnave Moving on Cape Haytien—An Attack Expected.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PORT-AU-PRINCE, HAYTI, July 28.—The army under General Jean Jumeau, who supports the candidacy of M. Firmin for the presidency of Hayti, has been repulsed by troops under the command of General Saint Foix Colin. The gunboat Crete-A-Pierrot prevented a pursuit of the Jumeau forces and General Colin's troops returned to Port-au-Prince.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Acting Secretary Hill to-day received the following cablegram from United States Minister Powell, dated at Port-au-Prince to-day:

"General Colin left Port-au-Prince yesterday morning with 2,000 men to repel Firmin's army, which was landed from the Haytien naval vessel commanded by Admiral Killick. After a skirmish which ensued, the forces of Firmin retreated to the warship. Colin returned to the city yesterday afternoon. The information is that twenty were killed and sixty wounded. The number killed on the other side was still unknown. The Haytien vessel left last night; destination unknown, and there was much firing in the city. The Machias has arrived at Cape Haytien."

CAPE HAYTIEN, July 28.—General Albert Salnave entered Limbe yesterday evening, and this morning he was within nine miles of this city, after having defeated the troops under General Nord, the minister of war of the Provincial government. The capitulation of Grande Riviere is expected and Cape Haytien probably will be attacked this evening or to-morrow morning.

LYNCHING IN GEORGIA.

Negro Hanged to a Telegraph Pole and His Body Shot to Pieces.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PEMBROKE, GA., July 28.—John Wise, a negro, who last Wednesday committed an assault upon Mrs. John Smith, a young white woman, was lynched here last night. He was captured near Potler, Ga., after a desperate fight with a posse. He was returned to this place and positively identified as the assailant of Miss Smith. He was then hanged to a telegraph pole and his body riddled with bullets.

Dead Body Found.

CHIPLEY, GA., July 28.—The dead body of Arthur McCauley, colored, was found about one mile from town last night, with twenty bullet holes in his body and head. He was taken from the calaboose Friday night by a mob. The guard, being covered with a gun in the hands of a masked man, was backed away from the calaboose, ordered to keep quiet and not allowed to give an alarm until the crowd were entirely out of town. No trace has yet been gained as to who composed the mob.

DISTURBANCES IN PARIS.

Many Persons Injured and Hundreds Arrested on Sunday.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PARIS, July 28.—Many persons injured, ten of them seriously, and hundreds arrested, are the net results of the street disturbances yesterday in in which both clerical and anti-clerical demonstrations brought about by the closing of unauthorized religious schools were made. There were great crowds on the boulevards throughout the evening in expectation of further rioting. A large procession of students, shouting and singing, was dispersed by the police and attempted red flag demonstrations at the Strasburg statue also were broken up. Quiet was restored at midnight. The religious establishments in more than fifty departments have voluntarily dissolved, without any intervention by the authorities.

SLIGHT SHOCKS OF EARTHQUAKE.

Felt in Many Places in Nebraska, Western Iowa and South Dakota.

MORE SEVERE IN CALIFORNIA.

People Stricken With Terror—The Earth Cracked in Many Places—A Water Tank Knocked Out--Damage to Property at Los Angeles.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

OMAHA, NEB., July 28.—An earthquake shock which was general over portions of Nebraska, Western Iowa and South Dakota, occurred shortly after noon to-day. The seismic disturbances were felt at a large number of towns in the three States and lasted from ten to fifteen seconds. No damage has been reported thus far, although the shock was sufficient to rattle dishes and to affect bell towers in some places. Yankton, S. D., reports a shock of twelve seconds duration; Santee agency in Northern Nebraska reports a similar occurrence, and Battle Creek, Neb., was shaken for twenty seconds.

Severe in California.

LOMPOC, CAL., July 28.—Lompoc valley experienced a severe earthquake shock at 10:55 last night. At that time a violent shock was felt which lasted fully thirty seconds and was so severe that dishes, clocks, house plants and other articles were thrown from shelves. The people were stricken with terror and ran from their houses. Another heavy shock was felt at 5 A. M., and one at 11 A. M. today. A large water tank was knocked over, the earth cracked at many different places and the Santa Ynsee river bed was slightly changed at places.

SANTA BARBARA, CAL., July 28.—Meagre advices received from Los Angeles, report that an unusually severe shock of earthquake occurred about 11 o'clock last night, doing damage to the property of the Western Union Oil Company estimated at from $12,000 to $15,000.

At Harris station on the same road a fissure is reported to have opened, and from it a stream of water two feet deep and eighteen feet wide is now flowing.

SEVERE STORM AT PITTSBURG

Three Persons Killed and Many Buildings Struck by Lightning—Houses Flooded and Property Damaged.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PITTSBURG, PA., July 28.—A terrific thunder and lightning storm, with a heavy rain, visited this section this evening, causing three deaths and much property loss. The killed: Miss Kate Walsh, of Eureka street; Francisco Imperatora and Costello Matteo.

Miss Walsh died from shock caused by lightning. The two Italians were of a gang of ninety working at Unity. When the storm broke in its fierceness the men sought shelter under some trees near by. Lightning struck one of the oaks and the two men were killed instantly. Five others of their fellow workers were severely injured, but will recover. Throughout the city and suburbs the storm inflicted considerable damage in the way of overflowing sewers, flooding cellars, etc.

In Hazelwood the Presbyterian church was struck by lightning and the steeple thrown over, but no one was injured.

At Hayes' station, Street's Run overflowed its banks and flooded the village. Quite a number of the residents had to flee for their lives, so quickly did the rise come. So far as known all escaped injury.

The storm seemed to expend its fury in this immediate vicinity and travelled eastward with much lessened intensity. It is safe to say that twenty-five buildings—residences and out-houses—were struck by lightning in this district during the twenty-five minutes the storm prevailed.

A RIVAL OF TRACEY.

Five Men Shot at Portersville, Cal., by James McKinney, an Ex-Convict. He Made His Escape.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

FRESNO, CAL., July 28.—At Portersville, James McKinney, an ex-convict, shot five men and escaped into the country in a stolen rig. McKinney first shot out the lights of a saloon, and then in trying to shoot the cards out of the hands of a player wounded the latter slightly. He then went to a livery stable and at the point of a revolver secured a rig. As he was driving off a constable, a deputy and several citizens tried to arrest him. He opened fire, wounding four of the party and escaped. Two years ago McKinney killed a man at Bakersfield, but was exonerated.

William Lynn, whose abdomen and legs were filled with buckshot, succumbed to his wounds. McKinney also filled the right arm of George Barrows, a printer, with shot and sent a bullet into the mouth of Deputy Marshal Willis, another into the arm of Deputy Constable Tompkins, and a load of shot into the arm of W. D. West. McKinney, headed for Fresno county, and it is believed he will make for the mountains. He has a shot-gun, a rifle and a revolver and said before leaving that "Tracey would not be in it" with him.

Doyle, secretary of the Catholic Missionary Union, received a gift of $10,000 for the establisment of the apostolic mission house, an institution which is to be opened in this city for the training of Roman Catholic priests as missionaries to non-Catholics and to the newly acquired insular possessions of the United States.
